UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN RE:)

ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS)

THIS MATTER coming on to be considered and being considered by the undersigned United States Bankruptcy Judges, and it appearing to the Court that, from time to time, the Clerk of Court collects claims and notice fees from Chapter 7 Trustees and Chapter 13 Standing Trustees in amounts that exceed the actual amounts due and payable for claims and notice fees, either as a result of calculation errors by the Clerk of Court or overpayments by the Chapter 7 Trustees and Chapter 13 Standing Trustees, and

IT FURTHER APPEARING to the Court that the administrative expenses incurred by both the Clerk of Court and the Chapter 7 Trustees and Chapter 13 Standing Trustees in refunding and administering such overpayments often far exceed the amount of such overpayments, and

IT FURTHER APPEARING to the Court that the Clerk of Court and the Chapter 7 Trustees or Chapter 13 Standing Trustees should not incur the administrative expenses associated with refunding overpaid claims and notice fees in amounts of $30.00 or less, and overpaid claims and notice fees in these amounts should remain on deposit in the Federal Registry.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Clerk of Court shall not refund to Chapter 7 Trustees or Chapter 13 Standing Trustees overpaid claims and notice fees in amounts of $30.00 or less because it is not administratively cost-efficient to refund such overpayments.

THIS the 18th day of September, 1993.
