UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA

In re:

ORDER IN AID OF
CASE ADMINISTRATION

THE COURT, in response to inquiries by the Bar regarding the applicability of the December 1, 1993 Amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure to contested matters and adversary proceedings in Bankruptcy cases pending in this District, hereby clarifies the status of these Amendments.

A Committee was appointed by the Court on May 3, 1994 to review, and make recommendations for amendments to, the local rules of procedure for this Court, including but not limited to, recommendations as to the extent to which the Amendments to the Federal Rules should be applicable in Bankruptcy cases in this District. That Committee has met on several occasions but has not yet completed its review or issued its report.

Pending that report and further Order regarding the applicability of said Amendments, the December, 1993 Amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall not be applicable to contested matters and adversary proceedings in cases under Title 11 in the Western District of North Carolina unless otherwise ordered within a particular matter. Practice shall for the interim continue under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as they existed as of November 30, 1994.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

This the 30th day of July, 1994.
