ORDER GRANTING EXEMPTION FROM PAYMENT OF PACER FEES

THIS MATTER is before the court upon the application and request by Yvonne (Yanzi) Han for exemption from the fees imposed by the Electronic Public Access fee schedule adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States Courts.

The court finds that Ms. Han is a Ph.D. student affiliated the University of Chicago Booth School of Business. She is researching the role of information in corporate bankruptcies. Specifically, she is investigating whether creditors/stakeholders gain sufficient information at the early stages of Chapter 11 bankruptcies (through firm disclosure of schedules and creditors' meetings) and how information asymmetry (among creditors or between creditors and debtors) affects their negotiation and voting during Chapter 11s.

Ms. Han falls within the class of users listed in the fee schedule as being eligible for a fee exemption. Additionally, Ms. Han has demonstrated that an exemption is necessary in order to avoid unreasonable burdens and to promote public access to information. Accordingly, Ms. Han shall be exempt from the payment of fees for access via PACER to the electronic case files maintained in this court. Ms. Han shall not be exempt from the payment of fees incurred in connection with other uses of the PACER system in this court. Additionally, the following limitations apply:

- I. this fee exemption applies only to Yvonne (Yanzi) Han, PACER account number 7165643, and is valid only for the purposes stated above;
- II. this fee exemption applies only to the electronic case files of this court that are available through the PACER system;
- III. by accepting this exemption, Ms. Han agrees not to sell for profit any data obtained as a result of receiving this exemption;
- IV. Ms. Han is prohibited from transferring any data obtained as a result of receiving this exemption, including redistribution via internet-based databases; and
- V. this exemption is valid through June 30, 2025.

This exemption may be revoked at the discretion of the court at any time. A copy of this Order shall be sent to the PACER Service Center.

It is so ORDERED.
