

Additional Creditor Filing Information

- Official forms are available on the Bankruptcy Forms page of the U.S. Courts Website.
- Rule 5005(a)(2) permits a court by local rule to permit the filing, signing, and verifying of documents electronically. The Filing electronically deems the document signed.
- Penalty for fraudulent filing: Fine of up to $500,000 imprisonment for up to 5 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152 and 3571.

Proof of Claims

- Creditors are required to file Proof of Claim forms for all chapters electronically.
- Official Form 410 is required. Supplemental documentation to the claim may be attached.
- The address of the creditor is automatically added to the mailing matrix of a case when a proof of claim is filed to ensure service of case-wide documents.
- The full name and title of a creditor or other person authorized to file a proof of claim must appear on the form. If a party other than the creditor is filing the proof of claim, the address of that party must be included. Filing a proof of claim electronically deems the claim signed by the creditor or authorized person.
- Amended Claims - Check the box indicating that the claim amends a previously filed claim. Select the court claim number.
- An attorney may file the proof of claim through the website, indicating, "filed by: attorney" or may obtain a live ECF login and password.
